WHO IS JESUS?

What if we anticipated Easter with the same longing, excitement, and joy that we feel for Christmas?

What might that look like during our family worship time? How can we make the season of Lent super special, just as Advent has been so special in our home?

These are questions our family has wrestled with, and how our book Who is Jesus? 40 Pictures to Share with Your Family came about. We want to help your family make your family worship time a meaningful and special experience. Through reading, singing, and action, you can create a multi-sensory experience your kids won't forget, magnifying Jesus and his work on the cross.

In this guide you'll find printables that can be used to make cards, stickers, or ornaments. Maybe you'd like to create something similar to a Jesse Tree to hang the cards on, or maybe you'd like to line them up to create a pictorial timeline. Or you could place the cards together into the shape of a cross, or make a path to the cross and empty tomb. You could even make them into magnets if you'd like.

At www.KateHox.com, you'll also find links to the suggested songs for each day. Each hymn has a link to the site Hymnary, where you can find what number the hymn is in various hymnals, as well as lyrics and sometimes also piano accompaniment. Or perhaps you'd like to sing along with a YouTube lyric video, or just listen to a new song while you clean up and do the dishes. Do whatever works for the age and attention spans of your kids.

If you'd like to include candles as part of your celebration, you may consider a Waldorf-style candle ring with 40 candles. Or you can simply put some smaller tea light candles in the shape of a cross, or dress up your Advent candle holder to make it more Easterly.

For stickers, print pages 1-4 onto Avery 2" X 2" white square labels, Template 22806. For cards, print pages 5 through 11 onto cardstock on one side and pages 12 through 18 on the other side.
